WORLD PEACE DAY

Céu do Mapiá celebrated World Peace Day on January 1st, with an oração led by Madrinha Júlia in the village square, a speech by Padrinho Alfredo, dances, gymnastics, contests and a music show put on by the children. This was followed by a feast in the Community Kitchen. This lovely gathering, organized by AMVCM and the Event Planning team, included the participation of Padrinhos and Madrinhas, locals and visitors. It marked the official opening of the Year of the Centennial of Padrinho Sebastião and affirmed Love, Harmony, Truth, Justice and Peace. Our wish for all the irmandade is a year filled with light, prosperity and the practice of the teachings of our beloved Padrinho. Viva 2020!!

PADRINHO ALFREDO'S 70TH BIRTHDAY

The year 2020 arrived, and with it the 70th birthday of Padrinho Alfredo, president of the Santo Daime in Brazil and worldwide. The greatest gift was the presence of Madrinha Rita in the church during the celebratory hinário, an unforgettable moment! The year continues, with many commemorations.

VILA CÉU DO MAPIÁ'S 37TH ANNIVERSARY

“GREEN” COMMUNITY CURRENCY IS BEING TESTED

Last month, in December, testing of the ‘VERDE’ community currency system began in Céu do Mapiá. The creation of a community currency is part of the strategy for strengthening the economic solidarity of Mapiá, by means of the FORTES network. The VERDES are already accepted for purchases at the Community Farmers’ Market, at the Community Kitchen, at the ‘Vendinha da Floresta’ store and by numerous producers and providers of services affiliated with the Network.

DHARMA INSTITUTE VISITS CÉU DO MAPIÁ AND FAZENDA AND PUBLISHES REPORT

In August 2019, Céu do Mapiá received a visit from member of the Dharma Institute, an NGO that attends to areas that have limited access to Public Health services. Over a two-week visit, physicians from several specialties along with dentists and a psychologist attended to residents in the Vila and in the Fazenda São Sebastião. With the support of the Residents' Association of Céu do Mapiá, they cared for over 100 residents and have planned to return in 2020. See the complete report at the following link.

VOLUNTEER OPHTHALMOLOGY CLINIC IN CÉU DO MAPIÁ

The ophthalmologist André Born visited Céu do Mapiá in December. The physician was accompanied by his friend Zerivan de Oliveira, from the Flor do Cajueiro Church in Ceará. On the first day, he attended to 34 patients at Madrinha Rita's house. In total he saw over 240 residents, including children, adults and the elderly. The initiative was completely voluntary. Dr. André brought all of the necessary equipment and instruments needed for the clinic and was assisted by various members of the community.

FOREST MANAGEMENT PLAN ACHIEVES FSC CERTIFICATION

The certification process for the Community Forest Management Plan of the Vila Céu do Mapiá was completed under the guidelines of the FSC (Forest Stewardship Council). COOPERAR received the certification on January 13. An important victory for Céu do Mapiá, the certification recognizes that the efforts made have contributed to conservation of natural resources, allowed for fair and appropriate conditions for the workers and have promoted good relations with the community.

EDITORA YAGÉ WORKS IN NEW PUBLICATION

Fernando Ribeiro, has just completed his work "From Vilcabamba to Céu do Mapiá," the second book in the trilogy "Ayahuasca, the American Ceremony." The author recounts memories and episodes from his travels and experiences in support of the expansion of the Santo Daime, from stories of the Incas to episodes from his time living in the forest with the people of Padrinho Sebastião. Along with this new book, the first volume of the trilogy is also being re-released- "The Incas, Plants of Power, and a Spanish Tribunal." Both books are being published by Editora Yagé.
